

STRENGTHS-BASED MENTORING: WHY IT WORKS!

GUEST SPEAKER

Lana Hailemariam

One thing I love about my story is the diversity of my background and experience. With more than 20 years of experience in both for-profit and nonprofit sectors, my clients get more insight than usual. More than half of those years include Sales, Marketing, Event Management, Health & Wellness, Education, Ministry and Entrepreneurship.

The path I traveled to StandUP hardly resembles a straight line, but the wisdom I gained through life's challenges have laid the foundation to authentic, meaningful conversations that positively impact people, teams and organizations. Not everyone's story is the same. Nor should they be. I help people feel empowered in whatever their story or path is. That journey often is necessary for each of us to achieve greatness.

As a Gallup-Certified StrengthsFinder Coach, a Certified Professional Coach for the Institute for Professional Excellence in Coaching, and an Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner, I get to companion people, teams and organizations as they move from where they are to where they want to be. I am committed to contributing to the world, leaving it better than I found it.

I brought my "east coast flair" to the mountains when I moved to Denver from The DMV (D.C., Maryland, Virginia). When I am not coaching, I am likely curled up with a good self-help or leadership book, binge watching Netflix or enjoying nature outdoors somewhere beautiful. Preferably two out of three at the same time whenever possible!
